

NGA TAWA
DIOCESAN SCHOOL

NGA TAWA EQUESTRIAN ACADEMY

EQUESTRIAN OPTIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

1. BEGINNER RIDER

A student can participate in beginner riding for only one year

$100/week

Package details:

- Shared access to school horse
- Daily riding
- Individual lessons from equestrian staff, minimum of three each week

Beginner competitions and offsite riding will be available during the year

2. EXPERIENCED RIDER

Available for the time the student studies at Nga Tawa Diocesan School

$200/week

Package details:

- Lease and exclusive use of a horse compatible with rider's ability
- Daily riding
- Individual lessons from equestrian staff, minimum of three each week

Competitions, hunting and off site hacking available most weekends

Horse maintenance costs, tack hire and feed are included in all packages

Students must commit for a minimum of 10 weeks of riding

Not included in either package:
Transport to competitions, hunting and off site hacking and entry fees to competitions (approximately $20-60/show)

Entry fees to competitions (approximately $20-$60/show)

All riders are expected to be involved with the daily care of their horse, or grooming fees of $50/day will apply

- All brochure images are of Nga Tawa students

ANDREW SCOTT

Member of New Zealand Olympic Eventing Team, 1992; WEG Gold Medal Eventing Team winner, 1990.

Recent coach of the Brazilian & Indian Eventing Teams. Massey University Lecturer and Equine Consultant specialising in Sports Psychology.

PENNY CASTLE

International Grand Prix Dressage Rider; ESNZ Elite Level Coach. NZ Dressage Grand Prix Champion 2015.

BRYCE NEWMAN

New Zealand International Eventing Team Member. NZ Eventing Super League Series winner. NZ National Three Day Event Champion.

BERNARD DENTON

Current Grand Prix and World Cup winning show jumper.

FEEES SPECIALISED DISCIPLINE COACHES

$80/45 minutes

SPECIALISED DISCIPLINE COACHES AVAILABLE