About the Henry and William Williams Memorial Trust

The Henry and William Williams Memorial Trust is an Anglican Charitable Trust. It was established by Archdeacon Samuel Williams of Te Aute, to honour the memory of his father Henry and his uncle William, who were missionaries among the Maori people of Aotearoa, New Zealand from 1823 -1876. The Trustees of this Trust are all descendants of Henry & Marianne Williams and/or William and Jane Williams.

The purpose of the Trust is to support Christian missionary work based on Anglican principles, among indigenous peoples of Aotearoa New Zealand, the Pacific Islands and other countries.

This includes:

- Supporting existing missions
- Establishing new missions
- Specific health, education, welfare, and other mission projects
- Education of suitable candidates for missionary work
- Anglican mission support

Conditions of Application

If you receive a scholarship from the Henry and William Williams Memorial Trust, you will agree to abide by the following conditions:

1. You will use the funding only for the purpose for which it is intended.
2. The scholarship recipient will supply a school progress report to the Trust Secretary every six months.
3. You will advise the Secretary immediately should the student be withdrawn from the school or circumstances change.
4. The Scholarship will be paid direct to the school at which the pupil is enrolled.
